

IOWA MASSEY COLLECTORS ASSOCIATION NEWSLETTER

March 2020

Hello Massey Collectors,

Join us April 4 @ 11:30am for the MCA Spring Meeting 2020 at Bonanza in Des Moines, IA

On April 4, 2020, Larry Gerling has completed his first term and Roger Burgart has completed his second term. Election will be for 2 spots on the board. We plan to meet at 11:30 am for lunch and then hold our annual meeting after the meal. Please bring an item or 2 for the auction after the annual meeting. The auction raises money for the Iowa chapter to continue.

Not a Massey, but I hope this combine doesn't get stuck this way. It would be a long ride sideways.

44 Special with a pull type Massey Harris Clipper 50 owned by the Armstrong Family (El Paso, IL)

1957 MH 444 LP Standard owned by
Armstrong Family (El Paso, IL)
(1 of 8 known to exist)

One way to winterize your tractor and still be able to drive it!
1949 MH
44 with the Original Cab Co. owned by Madlem Family from Charleston,
IL

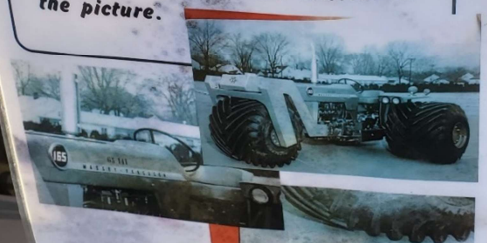

You need think about how you would get on the Massey Harris 44 to drive with the 2-row mounted picker!

1965 MF
165 military tractor owned by Sam Harris

This tractor was built for the US Department of Defense by Massey Ferguson at it's Southfield Detroit Plant. It's purpose was to move cargo off the beaches in Vietnam. Only a few were ever built. This is the only one known to exist. Note the military numbers (G5 141) on the side of the tractor in the picture.
